Union Arranged

YEAR'S OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

W. J. Estep of Canonsburg Named President—Friday Evening Session Brim Full of Good Things for Endeavor Workers

Burgettstown will be the scene of the twenty-eighth annual convention of the Washington County Christian Endeavor Union, which closed its two days convention here Friday night with a big meeting at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church. The Burgettstown meeting will be held about one year hence. The following officers were elected upon the report of the nominating committee being presented by the chairman, Lester Winer: President, W. J. Estep, Canonsburg; vice president, Elmer Selby, Claysville; recording secretary, Miss Wilma Sloan, California; corresponding secretary, Miss Ora Work, Washington; treasurer, Miss Melverne Hams, Donora.

Friday evening's devotional service was conducted by Rev. A. J. Whipple of the Charleroi First Presbyterian church. The first address of the evening was made by Rev. George C. Vincent, pastor of the Second United Presbyterian church, Washington. Rev. Vincent spoke of "Human Nature in Service." He said the place Christian Endeavor societies fail in is lack of brightness; that meetings need spice put into them. "Play the game right," he advised, "coach yourselves."

Following the address, Miss Emma Clutter of Charleroi sang in good voice a soprano solo. Then the election of officers was taken up, following which the corresponding secretary, Miss Ora Work of Washington made her report of the year's work. Among other interesting items she brought out that there were 33 experts in the county, 19 of them being in Washington.

The second address of the evening was made by H. B. Macrory, secretary of the Pennsylvania State Christian Endeavor Union. He gave his address on "Christian Endeavor Evangelism," it being a talk brim full of good points for carrying on Christian Endeavor work.

Following an anthem by the union choir directed by Prof. I. T. Daniel, further business was transacted relative to the place and time of the next meeting and Rev. John Burson, pastor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church installed officers.

An important announcement was made also by Rev. Burson. This was in the award of four banners. The First Presbyterian church of Donora was given the banner for having the largest number present at the evening meeting outside of Charleroi. The banner for the largest percentage of members registered in the convention also went to the First Presbyterian church of Donora. The banner for the largest percentage of increase in membership during the year was awarded to the Coal Centre Presbyterian society and a junior banner for the society having the largest percentage of increase in membership during the year was given to the Third Presbyterian church at Washington.

Construction

Accompanied by Capt. C. L. Sturdevant, assistant to Col. Shunk of Pittsburgh, three Dutch engineers, who are making a tour of the United States as representatives of their government made a trip up the Monongahela River on the United States boat Swan. The men are all connected with the waterways in The Netherlands and appeared greatly interested in the working of the locks and dams, between Pittsburgh and Lock No. 4. They made sketches and notes of what they saw during the trip, but at no time during the trip offered any comparison between the water system they witnessed and that in use in their country. These men are F. L. Schlingemann of Maastricht, Jonkheer C. E. Wyan Panhuys of Ymuiden and C. J. VanDen Broek of Rotterdam. ## CHARLEROI FIRE DEPARTMENT TRUCK CONTEST IS UNDER WAY

The voting contest for boys under the auspices of the Charleroi Fire Department, with the prize a juvenile auto fire truck is just getting under way. So far there has been a misunderstanding of the contest. It is not in any sense of the word a "chance." Each boy sells a vote for 10 cents and the one selling the most gets the truck. The money goes to the Fire Department, since the contest is a benefit for the firemen's fund.

Vesta Coal Company Ships 125,000 Bushels by Vul-
can to Pittsburg

FEW BOATS UP STREAM NOW

Jones & Laughlin Fleet Not in Shape
For Coal Shipping Immediately—Monday to See Beginning of Trade in Earnest.

Practically the first evidence of the resumption of mines up the Monongahela valley was offered today when the tugboat Vulcan of the Jones & Laughlin fleet towed 125,000 bushels of coal down stream from the Vesta mines up the river. The Vesta started operations Friday.

The coal was about the first except for small cargoes that has been locked through Lock No. 4 since the first of June. Various small tows have gone through, but all together they would make comparatively little as lock trade goes. All the Jones & Laughlin towboats with the exception of the Vulcan were down stream when the resumption occurred and they have not yet gone up stream so that shipments will not begin fairly until Monday. The average shipment of coal through Lock No. 4 which is a fair index of the valley coal trade is from 300,000 to 350,000 bushels.

STEEL ATHLETES WINNING MEDALS

Local Runners and Track Men Set Places in Numerous Events

ARE ARRANGING A BIG MEET

Composed of some of the best athletes of nearby towns the Pittsburgh Steel Athletic Association in field and track meets is rapidly making a name for itself. In every meet in which the association has participated thus far, and these included the best amateur meets that have been held in the Pittsburgh vicinity, it has placed and medals won would decorate a good sized panel.

In the Kenneywood meet at the opening of Kenneywood park eight medals were taken by a team of seven men. In Wilkinsburg a place was won in the relay, the team being entered in only three events. At McKeesport where the Y. M. C. A. held a meet the team won third in the relay. This week at Kenneywood park at the A. O. R. outing the Pittsburgh Steel athletes again showed their mettle by winning five medals with a team of eight men.

The Pittsburgh Steel Association is made up mostly of high school athletes. Paul R. Nutt of Charleroi is the captain. Following are the members of the team: Hill, 100 and 220 yard man; Stahlman, 10 and 220 man; McGuire, marathoner of five miles or more; Riva, half-miler; Nutt, broad jumper; McQuaide, 100 and 220 man; Barry, quarter and half mile; McMillan, one mile; Wolfe, hurdle; Friedman, 100 yard man and broad jumper; C. Ritchey and J. Ritchey, shot putters and discus throwers. Hill Stahlman, McGuire, Riva, Nutt and the two Ritcheys are Charleroi youths. McQuaide and Barry are from Monessen, McMillan, who bids fair to touch if not eclipse the world's record in the mile run if he keeps up his sensational work, is from Donora and Wolfe and Friedman are McKeesport men. Hugus, the University of Pittsburgh athlete has recently been added to the team as pole vaulter and jumper.

FOR SANE FOURTH.
Charles D. Wynn Acting State Fire Marshal has prepared a booklet on the "Safe and Sane Fourth" which will be issued within the next few days. In the booklet, the marshal urges all Pennsylvanians to be careful if they handle fireworks. "A few years ago," he says, "the city of Pittsburgh was the scene of a disaster caused by the careless handling of fire crackers. From the same cause Pittsburgh lost about a million property in one day and in eight years the fire loss in the United States as the result of the careless handling of fireworks amounted to over $2,500,000."

TUESDAY
Big Triangle Program

WEDNESDAY
Clara Kimball Young in
"THE FEAST OF LIFE"

"Public sentiment today is in favor of a safe and sane Fourth of July.
Fourth of July celebrations have been tried without the promiscuous use of fireworks. It has been found most satisfactory, as no accidents from gun powder occurred and no fires from explosion report. The sentiment for a safe and sane Fourth of July is growing and whenever tried the experiment has shown that the new independence day celebration has not been necessarily a dull Fourth of July, but that there are far better ways of teaching the youth of the country to remember the Declaration of Independence than by the making of loud noises and the endangering of lives and property."

COMING
Kitty Gordon in
"HER MATERNAL RIGHT"

"Don't under any circumstances permit children to have matches or to set off fire works," he says and adds:
"Householders should be on guard against careless persons, by being prepared for emergencies. Keep buckets filled with water and place them handy for immediate use, or better still provide fire extinguishers for not alone this occasion, but for other occasions which might arise."
"Members of fire companies are interested and should lend their aid for a safe and sane Fourth of July. Usually this is one of the busiest days of the year and is seldom passed without injury or death. Be safe. Be sane. Have merriment and plenty of it, but avoid mourning by avoidance of carelessness."

CONVENTION COMES TO CLOSE

Resolutions were adopted as presented by the resolutions committee consisting of Elmer Selby, Harry F.
Cost, Everett H. Allen, Mabel Todd and Mary B. Fulton. In the resolutions the committee in charge of local arrangements, headed by John H. Clutter as chairman, was congratulated for their efficient work.
Young people's societies of Charleroi were thanked for their cordial entertainment. The hospitality shown by Charleroi people generally was recognized and the speakers were thanked as well as the ministers of Charleroi and Prof. Daniel, leading of the singing and juniors of Charleroi for their entertainment. Hearty approval was given of the efforts to increase the efficiency of the junior and intermediate departments of the country union, and good wishes were extended officers of the new union. The press of Charleroi was thanked as well as other papers in the county which helped to make the convention a success.

Two addresses featured the afternoon session Friday, the first being made by James J. Phillis of Coraopolis, who gave a talk on "Taking Men Alive." H. B. Macroby, state secretary, made the second address of the afternoon speaking of plans of the Christian Endeavor union to raise millions for carrying on work. He spoke for service for Christ in the church and in Christian Endeavor societies.

THE PASSING GOBBLER.
The turkey crop of Pennsylvania seems to be slowly disappearing. At the risk of being severely criticized W.
Theo. Wittman, poultry adviser of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture in a recent interview stated as his belief that the reason for this was that the farmers and growers generally were to blame, and that it was not due to black-head or any other old or new disease, says the Beaver Daily Times. Mr. Wittman points out the fact that the wild turkey was and is a native of this state and that turkeys should do well and would do well here if handled properly.

some times don't even come doubly.

It is quite natural of course for a

PICKED UP IN PASSING
F. J. Wolcott of the Rockefeller Foundation, said to a New York reporter on his return from the war zone:

"It is astonishing how humanity can become resigned to anything—even to war. Men would have gone mad with horror in the summer of 1914 if told that this war would last two years, but they contemplate today a war of three years with resignation."

"I knew a staff officer who was asked in London by the driver of a taxi:

"A long time," the staff officer answered. "A mighty long time, my man."

It was, therefore, with great surprise that the manufacturer saw the y at work in his former place on Monday morning.

"What are you doing in this shop?" demanded the manufacturer angrily.
"I discharged you Saturday!"

"Yes," said the boy, "and don't you forget it again. When I told my mother she kicked me!"—Chicago Post.

ARRESTED MAN GIVEN BROOM; DISAPPEARS

There is little trustworthiness to some trustees in the opinion of Chief of Police C. W. Alwright, who has been looking for one of the untrustworthy kind. A husky individual was landed in the lockup for overloading with intoxicating fluids. He was without funds and was set at work to make restitution for the offenses which he committed against the borough. Just after he was handed a broom at the lockup he disappeared and is still missing.

READ THE MAIL

Going, Going—
"Gone!" shouted the wildly-excited individual, waving his arms in the middle of the street. A crowd gathered quickly.
"Gone! Gone! Gone!" he shrieked again and yet again.
"What's the matter? Cashier eloped with your money?"
"Wife run away?"
"Lost a child?"
"No, no, no! But it's gone!"
Fifty-seven people held their breath, and then asked as one, "What's gone?"
The excited individual became suddenly calm.
"Yesterday has gone, my friends," he said, with a glad smile, "and today is going. You may die tomorrow or today. Now, without loss of time, you should take out a policy of life insurance with my firm, my—"
Then seven-and-fifty strong men seized him, and bore him to the nearest horse trough.

Saving for a Rainy Day.
Jake Pentecoff was a unique character. He had a large family and although he was reasonably diligent in the use of saw and ax on the village woodpiles, he frequently came to seek aid from the city fathers. "I gotta haff a sack of flour," said Jake on one occasion. "I'm all out, and my family iss starfin'." "All right, Jake," said the official. "If you need the sack of flour and have no money to buy it with, we'll get you a sack. But see here, Jake, there's a circus coming to town in a few days, and if we get you a sack of flour are you sure that you will not sell it and take your family to the circus?" "Oh, no," said Jake. "I already got tar safed up. Yes, I got money to go to circus."—Youth's Companion.

"It is a fact," declared a jeweler, "that the average watch carried by a woman never keeps accurate time." The reason for his remark was that a dark-eyed young woman had just passed out of the store after having had her new wrist watch regulated. The young lady couldn't understand why a brand-new timepiece should get out of order so quickly, but the jeweler explained it all. "Now that girl is a very popular young lady," he said. "A lot of the young men of Fitchburg call on her. She also has scores of friends among the young women. She goes about the city quite a good deal and is constantly meeting her friends. Probably she meets 25 persons a day or more. If she doesn't stop to speak to all of them, she at least waves her hand. The wrist on that dainty hand carries the watch. The works are inside of the watch. Naturally they get shaken up pretty lively every day. Now a watch to keep correct time ought to remain fairly quiet. That's the whole story about this young woman's wrist watch. She will probably blame the fault upon the jeweler when, as a matter of fact, it is all due to her popularity."—Fitchburg News.
